J in Motion

778-903-4638 • eleanor.lee@jinmotion.co

Eleanor Lee

Consultant

An infrastructure development and healthcare leader with more than 20 years developing concept plans and business cases, creating and leading governance structures, financing, procurement, and delivery of, large, complex public capital programs, including several of BC's most significant infrastructure investments. Her work spans major delivery and procurement model used in Canada, including Design/Build, Design/Build/Finance, Alliance, Construction Management, and Public-Private Partnership. Former health sector executive and now providing strategic and executive-level advisory services in infrastructure development from concept through to completion.

Areas of Expertise

Executive advisory & governance
Master planning and zoning analysis
Contract negotiations and contract management
Procurement procedures and analysis
Concept and business plans
Design management
Project implementation
Operational Readiness

Selected Projects

- New St. Paul’s Hospital
- Burnaby Cancer Centre
- Nanaimo Cancer Centre
- Clinical Support and Research Centre
- BC Children’s and Women’s Hospital Redevelopment

Credentials

- Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED), Canada Green Building Council
- Evidence Based Design Accreditation and Certification (EDAC), The Center for Health Design
- Project Management Professional (PMP), education complete; eligible for PMP designation
- San'yas Indigenous Cultural Safety Training, Core and Advanced, Provincial Health Services Authority
- Bachelor of Architecture (post-graduate professional program), University of British Columbia
- Bachelor of Commerce, International Business and Marketing, McGill University, Montreal
- Registered Architect (Retired), Architectural Institute of BC
- Prosci Change Management